the Best Gift

5th European Godly Play Conference

SEPT. 16TH - 19TH 2016
JURMALA, LATVIA

EUROPEAN GODLY PLAY FRIENDS, YOU ARE WELCOME TO THE 5TH EUROPEAN GODLY PLAY CONFERENCE!

Godly Play in Europe is expanding and is now playing a significant and exiting role in the daily life of many different churches. Wouldn't you like to know who those who use GP all are, and where and how we work? The best way to find that out is probably by attending a three day conference.

Next autumn this extraordinary happening will take place once again, prepared for you by Godly Players of Latvia and Norway. Take this opportunity to search for the gift that Godly Play can represent to children as well as to yourself, and join!

PROGRAMME & LECTURES

The programme will be filled with a variety of plenary and group sessions, lots of story-telling, worship, seminars, and leisure and social time, giving you plenty of opportunity to learn, explore and enjoy the Godly Play way of being together. There will be a wide range of workshops and seminars to choose from, led by people from several countries. More information about this will be published later. For the first time we will also offer an optional ACADEMIC SYMPOSIUM Thursday, September 15th., open for "active listeners". There will be several papers presented, one main lecture, and also a marketplace, where people can present their work on posters, and those interested can mingle and discuss it.

HENRIK SYSE

Philosopher working at the Peace Research Institute of Oslo. With major interests in ethics of war, and philosophy vs religion, to some he may be better known as their local Sunday School teacher. The working title for his speech is: Playful wondering about existential questions - our best gift to children. After attending the 5th EGPC he will be an advocate for Godly Play in the Nobel Peace Prize Committee, of which he is a member.

KNUT TVEITEREID

teaches at NLA University College in Oslo. In 2015 he finished his Phd on the impact of youth ministry. His best-selling book for youth and children, Word Bytes: The Completely Manageable Bible in 365 Readings, has been translated into several languages. The title of his lecture is: Jesus' best gift to us.

REBECCA NYE

Rebecca Nye, PhD, is a researcher and author in children's spirituality. She lectures in child psychology and childhood studies for the UK's largest university, The Open University, and supervises of post-graduate theology students at both Cambridge and Oxford. However her passion lies in leading the training and development of Godly Play UK since she first brought it and Jerome Berryman over from the USA in the late 1990s. She will address the ways GP might be one of the best gifts for children and churches across Europe, especially its contribution to engaging with often unnoticed forms of deep spirituality. Having led more than 120 core trainings, and over 50 trainers across Europe, Rebecca thinks Godly Play the best gift she ever received and will try to explore the many layers in which this present is wrapped.

RUNE ØYSTESE

"midwifed" GP into Norway in 2006 and has been vice president of the GP International Advisory Board since 2014. He teaches at NLA University College in Bergen. He will present a lecture about the Bible story as a best gift.
